measured pour spouts

custom-imprinted collars

Precision Pour® 3 Ball Liquor Pour spouts can be customized for your brand, your bar or your special event by printing on the spout's collar.

Custom printing can be applied on one or both sides of a spout collar and, depending on the complexity of your artwork, can be either one or two colors.

To learn more about customizing your spout collars, contact us. A Precision Pours representative will help you get started with this terrific brand booster.
